All responses must be written in the booklet(s) sheets provided.*

SECTION A

Respond all the items in this section.

Man's relationship with God.

Item 1

Joel Nshuti a 29 year old, was a street preacher around Shoprite traffic lights for 10 years. Two months ago he was approached by a well-wisher who offered him a piece of land in Kilombe Zone- Nsambya to build on a church and continue spreading the gospel comfortably. Through friends and other well wishes, a church was built. He received chairs, loud speakers, a keyboard and drums and on a daily basis 50 new members join the congregation. In July, this year, he came up with a church programme that included overnight prayers every Friday. However, some neighbors approached him requesting him to relocate his church or conduct worship without instruments since the instruments especially the speakers were too loud, hence a source of noise pollution in the community.

Task:

- a) As a Christian, why did Joel come up with such a programme at his church?
- b) In your Opinion, explain the possible ways of preventing such a situation?

Item 2

A Samaritan woman came to draw some water and Jesus said to her "Give me a drink of water". The woman answered, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan so how can you ask me for a drink?" Jesus answered, "If you only know what God gives and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you would ask him and he would give you life giving water."

"Sir", the woman said, you do not have a bucket, and the well is deep, where would you get that life-giving water?... Jesus answered, "Those who drink this water will get thirsty again. The water that I will give them will become in them a spring which will provide them with life giving water and give them eternal life."

"Sir," the woman said, "give me that water! Then will never be thirsty again, nor will I have to come here to draw water". John 4:7-15 (GNB)

Task:

- a) As a CRE student, explain the lessons you learn from Jesus' conversation with the Samaritan woman.
- b) How should modern people in your community treat each other as derived from the text above?

SECTION B

This section has two parts I and II

Part I

Man's domination over the world.

Respond to one item from this part.

Item 3

Yeye is an old man, once a wrestler. He says that during their time wining a competition, one had to work very hard. He won several competitions and was rewarded pieces of land, and also young girls as his wives.

After winning, he would celebrate with his supporters by taking local beer and dancing.

Different serving points were organized as a way of classifying/ranking the married and unmarried.

Task:

- Explain the values Traditional Africans attached to the various form of leisure they enjoyed.
- As a Christian how would people in your community enjoy their leisure?

Item 4

Mr. Kaima a committed worker at Kyeya Secondary School-Bulogo, comes early and leaves late in the night from school. Due to his little salary, he resorted to getting some students to coach in order to earn more income to settle his many financial challenges. He also resorted to taking alcohol during his free time so as to forget his challenges.

Task:

- Using your Christian knowledge, how can you help people in such situations?

Part II

Man's harmonious co-existence

Respond to one item from this part.

Item 5

A senior two girl in your school was raped and inpregnated by a unknown man during the previous holiday. However, she kept it secret, through medical checkups at school, she was found pregnant and expelled from school. Fearing to reach home, she went to her aunt's place until she gave birth. On returning home, she apologized before her parents and requested them to keep or leave with her baby such that she goes back to school which they refused. She later dumped the baby by the road side garbage pit in order to remain free but she was arrested by some concerned people in her village who took her to police, most likely to be imprisoned.

Turn Over

However, many women in her community want her out of the police cells contrary to the public laws.

Task:

- (a) As a Christian, how should such a situation be solved?

Item 6

Nandi a single mother as well as an experienced hair dresser has a 20-year-old daughter Apu studying hair dressing at YMCA. During her holiday, she goes in the second salon of her mother to practice her future career. While at the saloon, Apu is dated by an old man Kazimungi who is said to be also dating her mother. Nandi has come to know that Kazimungi is in a love relationship with her daughter Apu, and the daughter has accepted and her mother suggested that Apu leaves her home.
